

Many, many thanks to North High Shoals for all of their work in the parade, the project for servicemen in Afghanistan, and other activities.

Thanks from the Town Council to:

Citizens of North High Shoals	Many thanks and gratitude to all the generous citizens of North High Shoals and the surrounding area who graciously donated items for our servicemen and to the citizens who donated money for postage expenses.
Mr. Horst Klein	Thanks for the loan of your tractor and wagon, for driving the council down Watkinsville's Main Street with a smile! Fun was had by all!
Ms. Heike Mueller	Thanks for the greenery for decorating the wagon, for the straw, support, etc.
Mr. Steve Holzman	Thanks for the beautiful banner for the parade, the decorating, and all your hard work on the website
Mr. David Lawrence	Thanks for helping to decorate with that handy staple gun, for your park work, and more.
Mr. Steve Arnold	Thanks for making the signs, writing letters, picking up contributions, packing boxes, etc., for our overseas servicemen. Thanks for getting these ready for shipping, and for your willingness to work so hard on this project.
Mrs. Allison Arnold	Thanks for making the lists, writing labels, separating and packaging the items to mail and for taking pictures of the parade.
Mr. Fred Johnson	Thanks for all of your hard work for the town, for decorating the wagon, contributing candy and your great candy distribution methods.
Mr. Jimmy Bradberry	Thanks for cutting and delivering in person the beautiful holly for the porch of Town Hall.
Ms. Susie Garrett	Thanks for working with Steve Arnold on organizing the gift items and packaging on Friday and Sunday afternoons
Ms. Bonnie Vaughan	Thanks to the Post Master of High Shoals Post Office for generously allowing people to drop off gifts for the servicemen in the lobby and allowing the floor of the Post Office to be strewn with packages for a while on Friday afternoon.
Tax Commissioner's Staff and Ms. Harriette Browning	Thanks to the Tax Commissioner's Office for collecting the items to send overseas with our care packages, and thanks to Mrs. Harriette Browning for delivering the box to our post office....on her lunch hour.
Judge David Anglin	Thanks to Probate Judge David Anglin for professionally administering the oaths of office to newly-elected council members.
Ms. Michele Lease	Thanks for bringing your children to ride in "our town's red wagon float" and for taking pictures along the parade route and supporting our council.
Ms. Amy Lawrence	Thanks for bringing your children to ride in "our town's red wagon float" and for taking pictures along the parade route and supporting our council.

If I have inadvertently omitted anyone who helped with the Servicemen's Project, or the Christmas parade or any other service to the town of North High Shoals in December, please let me know. I'm thankful for everyone's help.
